About The Family

Hal Kuntz, the proprietor, was a native Ithacan. To say that he was born to the food service industry would be a colossal understatement! As a child he played behind the counter of his father's famous Alpine Restaurant. After he finished school, and served a hitch in the Army during World War II, Hal came back to Ithaca to work full-time in the restaurant business. He met and married Sandy Lipshutz, from Binghamton. In 1961, Hal and Sandy opened their own delicatessen and sandwich shoppe on East State Street. Urban Renewal was responsible for the 1971 move to North Aurora Street. In 1977 a disastrous fire destroyed the deli, but the Kuntz family rebuilt and opened 6 months later.

In 1986, our beloved husband and father, Hal, passed away. The tradition is carried on by his wife Sandy, children Mike & Jackie, and granddaughter Allison.

The rest is history, so we won't hok a tchynik. Ithacans of every persuasion find Hal's a mechaich ... a place to forget your isuris and woes, do a little fressing, and become alevai, nicely zafstigl!

These days you may find Mike, Jackie, Sandy, Allison, or the crew working to make your first trip to Hal's a real pleasure.
